

Don't miss our live, in-person parenting presentation November 1

Can't See Eye to Eye?

Transforming Conflict Within Your Family

- Is your family experiencing tension that feels out of control?
- Are disagreements with your kids getting in the way of relationship-building?
- Ready to mix things up and learn the five approaches to conflict?

Join us on November 1 to learn new approaches to transform conflict into real family connection based on expressing core needs rather than blame and accusation.

Tuesday, November 1

9:15 - 11:00am

14603 E. Fremont Ave., Centennial

After earning a master's degree in conflict resolution from D.U., Emily de Sweinitz Taylor began an exciting path as a conflict resolution expert. In 2017, she wrote Raising Mediators: How Smart Parents Use Mediation to Transform Conflict and Empower Their Children. Since then, she has worked with students, staff and faculty to resolve conflicts via mediation, conflict counseling, and arbitration.

Save the Date: February 7 with Dr. Sheryl Gonzales Ziegler
